

Church History

Mount Calvary Baptist Church was organized in 1902. A small brush harbor east of the Florida East Coast Railroad was utilized for a meeting place. There were five ministers who organized the church: L. J. Ely, B. J. Goodwin, N. B. Williams, B. F. James and A. J. Thomas. Later, the church moved to a small frame house on Church Street, now known as Esther Rolle Avenue. Services were held there until a parcel of land was donated by the Model Land Company. It was then that a small frame church was erected on the site.

Reverend Brown (known as Little Brown) became the first pastor and served for a period of two years.

The following persons were a part of the first congregation of the church: Willie Gates, Jessie and Abbie Harry, Alex and Addie Holloway, Jonathan Rolle, and Jack Swain.
